Submitting your VC or VCX Application

1. You must be a current GRCA member.
2. Applications need to meet the current Title-Point Schedule requirements
3. You must complete the application form

Documentation

1. For all AKC titles in order of preference
 - a. A link to the GRCA Yearbook page
 - b. A scan or photocopy of the most current AKC title certificate
 - c. A scan or photocopy of the dog's official show or trial record provided by AKC
2. For all GRCA titles in order of preference
 - a. A link to the GRCA Yearbook page
 - b. A scan or photocopy of the official CCA, WC or WCX title certificate
3. For field trial placements or JAMs (three star or two star awards)
 - a. A link to the GRCA Yearbook page is required

The GRCA Yearbook page is the preferred documentation due to strict requirements for accuracy in the Yearbook Database. For access to the database go to: www.starzgoldens.com/yearbook and follow instructions.

VC/VCX certificates are not awarded until all titles have been verified.

We use the GRCA Yearbook Database for ownership and breeder verification as well. If ownership of your dog has changed you must also submit a scan or photocopy of the current registration.

VCX Write-ups and photos

VCX qualifiers will have a photo/write-up in the GRNews. Please submit a high resolution scan or photo and a write-up (maximum 150 words) with your application
